The mill will be owned by Appleton men while Mr. Spooner, Judge Romanzo Bunn, Major F. W. Oakley and certain Milwaukee capitalists are reported to be behind the railway projects.

The water power is owned jointly by all and one purpose of the conference related to the division of the power. Both projects are to be pushed at once.

Chief Justice Arellano then administered the oath of office to Governor Taft amid an absolute quiet, which was followed by the booming of cannon, the wildest of cheering, and the playing of national airs. The new governor's address was a brief, historical review of military and civil conditions in the islands and the possibilities of their development. Governor Taft said:

MORE BOOKS IN RURAL DISTRICTS; LIBRARY FACILITIES FOR FARMERS

Librarians at Waukesha Want Uncle Sam to Cooperate in Distribution of Books and Conveying of Children to a Central Public School.

Waukesha, Wis., July 5.—The most important question before the conference of the American Library association, now in session in this city, was introduced yesterday afternoon at the meeting of the Wisconsin state section. It was proposed in the form of a bill introduced in congress at its last session asking the free rural delivery of mail be extended to public library books. It is an effort to put the farmer in touch with the city and carry another of the advantages of city life to the country.

To Centralize Schools.

Frank M. Hutchins, the secretary of the Illinois state library commission, goes further. He proposes that libraries be established in connection with township consolidation of schools. He would then have free transportation of pupils and books. The wagons which would collect and deliver children could at the same time distribute and collect books. With a wagon calling twice a day at every farm house, Mr. Hutchins believes the circulation of existing libraries could be nearly doubled.

Will Ask Legislation

If such a plan is carried through in Wisconsin, the state legislature will be asked to pass laws giving a township the right to form "educational taxation districts" for the purpose of raising funds for the establishment and maintenance of a central public school and public library, both of which are to be open to the farms as well as to the villages of the township. The matter was discussed after the entire subject of traveling libraries had been thoroughly presented by people especially interested in the different phases. With the backing of Wisconsin, the impetus has been given, it is thought.

RAILROADS BUSY ON JULY FOURTH

St. Paul Sold Over 400 Tickets to Beloit—Fort Atkinson Also Drew Janesville People.

Nearly 400 tickets to Beloit were sold at the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul ticket office yesterday and eight special cars were sent out from this city over the St. Paul road to Beloit to accommodate the large number who wished to participate in the Line City celebration. The Chicago & Northwestern road also had a prosperous day in traffic to Beloit and one of the excursionists said that a person could hardly tell whether the city was Janesville or Beloit from the people on the streets. He added that it was not a Janesville celebration by any means, however, and all of the excursionists were thoroughly disgusted with the affair which Beloit dignified with the name of a celebration.

Fort Atkinson stood second to Beloit as an attraction to celebrators and a large delegation went to that city from here. About forty Janesville people spent the day at Lake Koshkonong.

BRING UP HORSES

Trotting Meeting Held at the Fair Grounds This Afternoon Drew a Good Crowd.

The familiar cry "bring up your horses," made the people who gathered at the fair grounds this afternoon realize that once more Janesville was to have a trotting meeting. It was not given on the same scale as in former years before pool selling was prohibited, but was a good meeting for one afternoon's meeting.

The races were gotten up by local lovers of fast horses, not for the purpose of making money, but to see how much pleasure could be derived from one good afternoon's racing. The entries in the different classes were as follows:

Free for All Trot and Pace—Purse, $150. Joe Bassett, Clinton, b. g., "Elrod." Chase, Mobbit, Edgerton, b. g., Col. Dixon. Fisher, Stock Farm, c. m., "Aunt Laura." James Conway, Edgerton, b. m. Joe Bassett, Clinton, b. m.

2:20 Trot and Pace—Purse $100. H. D. McKinney, b. g., "King Al." James Conway, b. m.

Joe Bassett, b. g., "Boeyen." 2:30 Trot and Pace—Purse $75. F. and J. Huggins, b. m. W. Wileman, Edgerton, b. m., Margus Wilkes.

Killed by Aurora Flyer. Chicago, July 5.—J. J. Menase was run down and instantly killed by the "Aurora flyer," a fast Northwestern train. The accident occurred in front of the station at Melrose Park. This is the second man the "Aurora flyer" has killed within ten days. Last week John Rohmet was struck and killed at Maywood.

Heat Fatal to Infants. Montreal, Que., July 5.—Mortality statistics show that out of 250 deaths in this city last week 212 were infants. The heavy mortality is ascribed to excessive heat.

GRASSHOPPERS IN MINNESOTA

Red River Valley From Wilkin County to Kittson is Suffering.

Minneapolis, Minn., July 5.—The grasshopper situation in some sections of Minnesota are alarming. Acting state entomologist, E. B. Forbes, has just issued his first official statement of the existing conditions. He defines the boundary of the scourge in these words:

"The Red River Valley, all of the way from Wilkin county to Kittson county is suffering."

The Rocky Mountain locust is most prevalent. In the vicinity of Moorhead they are present in sufficient numbers to do great damage if the weather conditions favor their work. In many places, he says, the insects have cleared up acres of young wheat and potatoes, and the fields are as bare as they were previous to planting.

COUNCIL MEANS TO KEEP ON RESISTING

Courts Must Settle the Prospect Avenue Crossing of the St. Paul Road—Case Again Adjourned.

The injunction case in which the city of Janesville is the plaintiff and the C. M. & St. P. R. R. the defendant, was set for hearing before Judge J. W. Sale of the county court at two p. m. On account of the absence of William Reger, who is trying the case for the city, it was adjourned until Saturday.

The erection of the new freight depot depends largely on the outcome of the injunction proceedings. No further work will be done on the building until the question of crossing the street is settled.

The St. Paul company's attorney claims that where they own the land on both sides of the street they have the right to cross the street on a grade without the permission of the common council. Mr. Hyzer of the Northwestern holds that the streets belong to the city and that they cannot be crossed by the railroad without first getting permission from the council. This is the question that Judge Sale will have to settle when the case comes up.

The company is thoroughly out of patience with the way in which their matters have been handled in this city. They are anxious to come here to spend their money and improve the looks of their property and all of the property adjoining the tracks. While they would like to build a new passenger station, to handle their largely increased passenger traffic they can get along without it and it now looks as if they would patch up the old station and make it answer for a year longer and probably two.

The mayor and most of the council claim that the benefits received by the building of a new passenger station are wholly in favor of the railroad company and that the city gets no benefit from them for the concessions that they ask. It looks as if the railroad is up against it as far as the council is concerned.

PLEASURE PARTY OFF FOR THE WEST

Tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock a merry party of pleasure tourists will leave this city in a private car Bower City, over the C. M. & St. P. R. R. for an extended western trip. Among the party will be Col. and Mrs. T. W. Goldin and son Herbert, Judge and Mrs. C. L. Fife, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Capelle, Misses Flora Dunwiddie, Grace Wright, Harriet Bostwick and Mattie Pound of Madison, Robert Bostwick, Harry McChesney of Edgerton, Fred Bennett of Rockford and several Milwaukee people.

The party will go from here to Savannah, Ill., and from there to Kansas City, then on to Denver and west.

DEBS DENOUNCES AMERICAN FLAG; HURLS ABUSE AT SUPREME COURT

Anarchistic Utterances of the Great Labor Leader at a Fourth of July Oration in Chicago.

Chicago, July 5.—Eugene V. Debs denounced the American flag, hurled abuse at the Supreme Court and railed at all forms of constitutional government in his Fourth of July oration yesterday afternoon at the social democratic celebration in Heord's Grove.

There were 250 social democrats present, and Debs was the speaker of the day. He talked for over two hours and at each fresh outbreak against the established order of things was lustily cheered by his listeners.

"Thousands of orators all over the land," said Debs, "will today glorify the institutions and the flag under which we live, but I am not one of those. I am not a flag worshipper. I have no respect for the stars and stripes or any other flag that symbolizes slavery. President McKinley in mock heroic has said: 'Who will pull down that flag?' I answer in my own behalf that the social democrats will pull it down."

DEATH FOLLOWS FOURTH OF JULY

Fatal Accidents Occur in Different Parts of the Country.

FROM A BALLOON

Ropes Burn and Aeronaut in Metal Case Drops into Lake Muskegon.

MANY WERE INJURED

Muskegon, Mich., July 5.—Frank Tezelow, a Grand Rapids balloonist, was killed here last evening, his manner of death being remarkable. His fall from midair, a distance of 1,000 feet, occurred in a cannon, landing in Muskegon Lake. Death was instantaneous. Tezelow was the assistant of Professor Meixell of Grand Rapids, who was engaged to make two ascensions here yesterday. He had made only one ascension before, that being in Cedar Springs last Tuesday. He begged to be permitted to go up here and Meixell consented. Tezelow was to be shot out of a cannon when he had risen to a certain height. He was included in the cannon with a parachute. When the balloon had risen 1,000 feet the rope holding the cannon caught fire, letting it fall to earth. The balloonist in the metal cannon plunged into Muskegon Lake before the gaze of thousands of spectators. The cannon struck a saw log and was badly battered, and the remains of the balloonist were fearfully mangled. Tezelow was 20 years of age. His home was in Grand Rapids.

Girl Scalped and Killed.

Canton, Ill., July 5.—During the celebration here the brick coping on a one-story building fell into the street. The accident was caused by a crowd on the roof. Twenty persons fell with it to the crowded sidewalk. Letha, the 8-year-old daughter of John Suydam, on the sidewalk, had her scalp torn off and skull fractured. She died soon after. Charles Fellows and Robert Knott are not expected to live. Twenty others were injured.

Boat Captain, Three Drown.

Toledo, Ohio, July 5.—Three persons were drowned in the river fronting Walbridge park. They were: George F. Hirth, proprietor of a job printing office; Helen Hirth, his sister; and Aggie Felker. These, with three others, went to the park to spend the day. While taking a row on the river, a sailboat came so near to them that a collision was feared, and in rushing to the other side of their boat it was overturned.

Mortimer Nye Stricken.

FIRST CAT KENNEL IN WISCONSIN BY A FORMER JANESVILLE WOMAN

Mrs. Blanche D. Wells Establishes a Unique Occupation in Milwaukee—Five of Her Kittens Are from Thoroughbred Stock.

Appropos to the revival of interest in the Oak Lawn Hospital Association, few people in this city are aware of the novel industry in which a former matron of Oak Lawn hospital has enthusiastically interested herself. The lady is Mrs. Blanche D. Wells, now of Milwaukee, who will be well remembered by her friends in this city.

To Mrs. Wells belongs the distinction of having founded the first cat kennel in Wisconsin. Cat kennels are very new in the United States. Cat clubs and cat shows are distinctly latter day institutions, although the gentle creatures themselves have been the friends of the illustrious of the earth since the pharaohs welcomed them to their luxurious homes and shared with them their honored tombs. History shows a long line of kings and nobles queens and ladies, authors and artists, who have done homage to cats while the House of Commons, cat and the County Council cat are as much a part of government machinery as lord or judge or jury.

Puss, take her as you will, reigns supreme the world over. She dares enter where prime ministers and courtiers fear to tread. She is master of all she surveys and no one denies her right to go where she will.

In 1887 a number of distinguished English people, drawn together by their sympathetic appreciation of the cat, instituted "The National Cat Club," probably the first of its kind in the world, certainly the first in England. In 1895, as an offshoot of this, was organized the "Lady Bedford Cat Club," with the Duchess of Marlborough, Duchess of Wellington and Lord Marcus Bearford as presidents, and half the gentry of England occupying the chair of vice-presidency.

New York of course could not be far behind her English cousins and in 1898 organized the first American Cat Show, at the termination of which "The New York Cat Club" was formed. The west woke up a little later, but once the west is aroused it is aggressively energetic, and when Chicago made up its mind to have cats and clubs and shows there was no specimen too good or too remote to be brought to her doors. The result is that Chicago is acknowledged today to have the finest and rarest collection of cats in the country. Indeed, a most learned judge, who had acted in the capacity of a cat expert in Europe for seven years, voted the collection of exhibits at the first Chicago Cat Club show in December, 1898, the finest he had ever seen in any country; and now kennels are being started all through the far west from stock obtained at the best Chicago kennels.

One of the most promising of these recently organized kennels is the one which Mrs. Wells has founded at 508 Sycamore street, Milwaukee. Five of the kittens which are a part of Mrs. Wells' collection of thoroughbreds, have for their sire, Drexel Norton, first of the Drexel kennels, of Chicago, for whom is claimed the proud title of the most famous and aristocratic cat in the world. Mrs. Leland Norton and the founder and proprietor of the famous Drexel kennels, is a personal friend of Mrs. Wells'. She will put no price upon Royal Norton, first, and money cannot buy him but he is valued at $25,000.

Mrs. Norton has won for herself a national reputation as a breeder and raiser of thoroughbred cats and the Drexel kennels' stock takes rank with the very best in the country. The great glory of the Drexel kennels is "Tootsie"—"Tootsie Willard." His great claim to distinction is that he was the well-beloved pet of Francis Willard, and as such inherits the love of her devoted followers. Over two thousand dollars' worth of "Tootsie" pictures have been sold for the temperance cause, so dear to the heart of his mistress and there is still a constant demand for the counterfeit presentation of his lovely head. "Tootsie" was really destined for better things in the way of name, having been originally christened "Gladstone," and "Gladstone" he would have remained had not the grand old man for whom he was named, one day repudiated principles considered vital by Miss Willard.

A visit to Miss Wells' kennel is full of interest and even the person who does not know an Angora from the common tabby of the alley is apt to come away enthused on the subject of thoroughbreds. Mrs. Wells herself is the most ardent of enthusiasts and very proud of her beautiful pets. All her life she says that she has had pet cats, the common, every-day plebeian being loved just as dearly as the dainty and costly aristocrats which she owns today but she confesses to the fact that the possession of these creatures of stainless lineage engenders the same feeling of pride that animates the owner of rare lace and priceless diamonds. Mrs. Wells has taken great personal pleasure in the establishment of the kennel which has already proved profitable to her and she intends to increase and enlarge it until Milwaukee can boast of a kennel second to none.

The kennel is founded on the very best stock and all of Mrs. Wells' cats are absolutely thoroughbred, all being registered. They receive many calls from interested people and Mrs. Wells could have sold them several times over but she has determined to keep the original members of her cat family. One of the most interesting of her kittens is Jacques, registered in the Drexel kennels and also in the Chicago cat club kennels. He is a magnificent animal with a jet black coat, pure white feet and the most exquisite coat a cat ever wore. This royal animal is only a little over a year old and the fur on his tail, which looks like a great ostrich plume, measures 5 1/2 inches. He is the most conceited fellow and enjoys exhibiting himself but is as exclusive as any prince of royal blood, rarely allowing any one but his owner to touch him. Black cats are being taken up wonderfully by theatrical people as mascots and this past winter Mrs. Wells had a chance to sell Jacques to a member of Olga Nethersole's company for a price three times as large as Mrs. Wells paid for him but she will not part with him at any price.

Bangalore, another of Milwaukee's famous kittens, is a pure Indian tortoiseshell, imported from her native home in Mysore, India. But very few of these cats have ever been brought to this country, and Mysore's stock is much sought after. Mrs. Wells also has four snowy white kittens, four months old, sired by Royal Norton, first. Their mother is Marie, owned by Mrs. Wells'. She is a registered cat and is eligible to any prize winning in the United States. Mrs. Wells does not let any young cats leave the kennel until they are six months old because they are apt to die if taken younger.

terested in it and some Janesville parties whose names I do not know. "Our plant at Kilbourn, with the paper mill and the cable to Portage and Madison for the transmission of power will represent an investment of about half a million dollars. The cable line from Madison to Kilbourn will cost $125,000 alone. Our dam will be about fifteen feet high counting the three feet splash boards we are authorized to put on it. The present dam is seven feet high. We have secured the rights and franchise of the Kilbourn Hydraulic Company which was formed by a consolidation of two older companies."—Milwaukee Sentinel.

WICKED RUN-OF-A PAIR OF HORSES

Team Belonging to Alfred Austin, Attached to a Hay Rack, Make a Lively Runaway.

A pair of horses belonging to Alfred Austin, made a wicked run down Milwaukee street on Wednesday afternoon about 5:30 o'clock and succeeded in wrecking a buggy or two and partly wrecking the hay rack to which they were hitched before they were stopped. The team became frightened at the street cars when near the Y. M. C. A. building. Austin was unable to hold them and was caught in between the hay rack and the wagon in such a way that he could not get out and it looked for a time as if he would be killed or terribly injured. After going a short distance the wagon struck an obstruction and the rack and Austin were dumped out into the street. Austin was considerably bruised around the body but no bones were broken.

The horses with the running gear of the outfit kept on down Milwaukee street. Larry Barron's, hitched in front of the American express office, was struck. The buggy was badly broken and the harness stripped from the horse. On the bridge they narrowly escaped wrecking E. E. Fife's surry and another buggy that stood there. They kept on across Main street and up Milwaukee street towards the east. Charles Thompson, who drives the Myers house bus, ran out and succeeded in getting hold of one of the lines and pulled the horses into a telephone pole at the corner of Bluff and Milwaukee streets. The horses were not hurt and did not seem to be particularly frightened by their run.

Buffalo Bill's Show.

The features of the Buffalo Bill entertainment that have made it famous on both sides of the Atlantic are too well known to need any introduction. The new features for the present season, the first of the new century, promise to be as entertaining as those Col. Cody and Mr. Salisbury have offered in the past.

A band of real Boers direct from the "kopjes" and "veldts" over which for two years they have been fighting, will show us what South African "Rough Riders" can do. The northwest mounted police, the pride of Canada, the red coated rough riders of the Canadian Northwest, will for the first time be seen in uniform and illustrating the methods of controlling the Indians, hair breeds and lawless whites of the Canadian frontier. A grand spectacle will be given in the battle of Tien-Tsin, China, an incident in the long suspense in which the whole civilized world was held last summer, when the legionnaires were bottled up in Peking. The scene in the Flowery Kingdom, the walled Mongolian city, and the attack by the forces of the world's powers, promises to be the most picturesque battle scene ever produced. Buffalo Bill comes here on July 23.

TIMBER FAMINE IN NEAR FUTURE

The Consumption of Wood for Manufacturing Purposes Has Reached Enormous Proportions.

Dr. W. Schlich, the well known forest expert, in a recent address before the London Society of Arts predicted a positive timber famine in the near future unless systematic measures for increasing the world's supply be speedily adopted. He pointed out that the use of wood, in spite of its displacement by coal, as fuel, and by steel in construction, was steadily increasing. The per capita consumption in the four chief countries of Europe is now fourteen cubic feet per year, and in a few years will probably reach twenty cubic feet. For this increase the use of wood in paper making seems chiefly responsible. The steady rise in prices, especially of coniferous woods in spite of the much cheaper transportation, which shows that the world's supply is diminishing.

Only five out of eighteen European countries export more timber than they import. Scandinavia and Russia are the principal exporters. The limit of production in the former seems to have been reached. Russia still has large forests, but domestic demands are rapidly increasing and an exportable surplus cannot long be depended upon.

The North American supplies are visibly declining. China has no timber to spare, and that country, when developed on modern lines, will be an importer rather than an exporter. There remain the rest of Asia, South America and Africa as sources of supply. But these do not furnish any considerable amount of coniferous woods, which are most in demand. Dr. Schlich therefore concluded that danger of a deficient supply of coniferous woods was practically at hand, and that deficiency of all kinds would soon occur unless remedial measures were adopted.

The remedy is easy, although time is required for its application. It is, as Dr. Schlich pointed out, to cultivate timber upon waste land, just as other crops are cultivated on more fertile soil. In Great Britain alone there are 25,000,000 acres of such lands. One quarter of this area, Dr. Schlich asserted, would make the country independent of foreign supplies of timber. The same remedy would restore the declining timber industry of the United States.

That this remedy will have to be adopted soon is evident, for natural growth can no longer keep pace with demand. The country that first engages in systematic timber cultivation, on a large scale will do much to assure its own perpetuity as a nation. That Spain's political and industrial decline, dates from the practical wiping out of her forests is a fact from which it is easy to draw the lesson.

Half the ill that man is heir to comes from indigestion. Burdock Blood Bitters strengthens and tones the stomach, makes indigestion impossible.

Accidents come with distressing frequency on the farm. Cuts, bruises, stings, sprains. Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil relieves the pain instantly. Never safe without it.

"Little Colds." Thousands of lives sacrificed every year. Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup cures little colds, cures big colds too, down to the very verge of consumption.

Itching piles? Never mind if physicians have failed to cure you. Try Doan's Ointment. No failure there. 50 cent, at any drug store.

Mrs. Izora Carrier has gone to Chicago to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. DeLong. Her daughter, Miss Zoe, is taking a special course in domestic art at the Lewis institute.

CONNECT MADISON AND JANESVILLE; NEW INTERURBAN ELECTRIC LINE

This Line Will Be the Outcome of the Great Water Power Electric Plant Proposed at Kilbourn.

An interurban electric road is proposed to connect Madison, Evansville and Janesville. The road is proposed in connection with the plan now being worked out by Phillip L. Spooner of Madison, former State Senator A. B. Whitman of Appleton and others to build a water power electric plant at Kilbourn, on the Wisconsin river, capable of producing 8,000 horse electric power. The cheapness of this power which is to be used to light the streets and run the street cars of Portage and Madison, caused the scheme for an interurban line, which will result it is expected, in the construction of the road.

The men who are backing the plant for a water power plant at Kilbourn are planning to bring to Kilbourn an electric smelting plant which will smelt copper, zinc and a few other metals by the electrical process. They also propose to build a paper mill at Kilbourn. These plants will be operated by the electric power generated by the water power plant. Ex-Senator Whitman was in Milwaukee yesterday and declared that the plant of his company will be one of the largest enterprises in Wisconsin. "The proposition for an interurban electric line between Madison and Janesville, to be operated by electrical power produced at Kilbourn is yet in its infancy," said Mr. Whitman. "We have been asked to make an estimate on the cost of the power for such a road, and we expect to have a meeting with the promoters of that line tomorrow at Madison. We were to have met today in Milwaukee but several of the men who were to attend could not come. I do not know just who the capitalists behind the proposed road are, except that one Chicago man, named Morgan is in-

THE NEWS FROM COUNTY TOWNS

THE GAZETTE AGENCY.

The Fourth of July celebration here was an unqualified success and two thousand people were in attendance. The parade was much more elaborate than had been planned and received and merited high commendation. The following was the make up: Marshalls, J. E. Davidson and A. D. Burdick; college band, speakers of the day, town officials, Grand Army, Odd Fellows, Good Templars, national float, Spanish guards, fire department, Milton Junction band, business men's floats. After the forenoon exercises and dinner came the athletics.

The 100-yard dash for men was won by Mark Place. 100-yard for boys by Wallace Nickelson; Sack Race by Master Stone of Milton Junction; Tug of war, between the East and West side was won by the West side team, Messrs. A. M. VanHorn, C. A. Tracy, Jno. Johnson, Harry Holmes and James Vincent.

This was followed by a ball game between Madison and Milton and despite the fact that Milton won by a score of 9 to 3, was a better game than the figures indicate. The work of Aiken in the box was excellent and he struck out twelve of the Madisonians. The visitors made one in the first inning and two in the sixth and Milton scored in the first, fourth, sixth and seventh. The Milton players were Vandewater, c. f.; Place, c.; Cole, 2b.; Ernest Green, 3b.; Robinson, s. s.; Holmes, 1b.; Bond, 1. f.; Whitford, 1. f.; Cashore, r. f.; Burdick, r. f.; Aikin, p.; batteries: Milton, Aikin and Place. Madison: Hyland and Whirle. Umpire, C. W. Crumb.

At 7:30 the college band gave a concert and after that the program closed with an exhibition of fireworks in the park.

Mrs. Eli Ayers, mother of Mrs. T. A. Saunders, died Wednesday night after a brief illness. Deceased was an aged lady and resided with her daughter for several years. DISFRANCHISING CONVENTIONS.
Virginia has followed in the tracks of such states as Maryland, South Carolina, Alabama and Mississippi in disfranchising the negro, and at the same time save the white vote. The only distinction between the attitude of Virginia and the other states is the fact that she has gone one step further in proposing to make the new constitution operative without submitting it to a popular vote, ignoring that which heretofore has been considered one of the fundamental principles of American equality. When the convention assembled, it refused to bow allegiance to either the state or the federal constitution. That fact in itself need cause no surprise because most of the southern states refused to take the oath when the original state constitutions were adopted.

Every one knows the main object of these conventions is to hedge about the colored man with conditions and requirements that it will be impossible for him to vote. In most cases the requirements are educational which bars thousands of poor mountain whites from voting if the laws are enforced; and they are a class of people who will not submit to such treatment without a struggle.

But as the sole object of this legislation is to allow the white man to vote, and to prohibit the negro, we can see the law applied rigidly in the latter case and loosely in the former. The ordinary southern negro may submit to these indignities until the law is applied to some rich, intelligent negro, and then a test case will be made in the courts which will be compelled to declare the state constitution, unconstitutional, and then the reaction will work havoc with the southern democracy.

Already much indignation is expressed at the high handed manner of the convention in refusing to submit the constitution to a popular vote; which if it cannot command a majority in an open and free election, ought never to be put in force. The objection submitting it to popular approval is that all the negroes are privileged to vote on its adoption, and its doom would be sealed as a revolutionary instrument.

A decade ago it would be very improbable that any community would have submitted to such high handed curioury; is it possible that our recent success as a world and a commercial power has so far blunted our senses that our fundamental principles and traditions can be subverted with impunity by revolutionists of the Virginia type?

There is a stronger demand than ever for the adequate education of the negro in order he may rise in his indignation, and take his place in the government of his race in "the home of the free."

COMMERCIAL EDUCATION.
The successful inauguration of the course in commerce at the state university both during the academic year and the summer school, and the offering of a similar course of instruction in our city, this summer calls our attention to the highest form of industrial activity.

Agriculture, mining and commerce are the source of a nation's wealth. We have adequate schools of agriculture in all of our states, prominent among which is our own splendidly equipped school in connection with the university. Many states favorably situated have their schools of mining engineering, such as Michigan, Colorado, California, etc., but schools of commerce are almost unknown on this side of the Atlantic. Agriculture is characteristic of a primitive development, then naturally comes manufacturing, and after manufacturing comes commerce as the highest and latest development in society, which is a mark of all advanced nations.

America today is respected and admired because her advance from one to another of these stages has been so rapid as to be almost improbable. Commerce acts as a great governor or safety valve on the spirit of war among nations; because war between two civilized powers means annihilation of commerce and ruin to the revenues of the country as well as of private dividends.

Although commerce itself may lead to misunderstandings many times as is instanced in our recent controversies with Germany over meat and with Russia over sugar, but such conflicts of opinion are not to be compared with the carnage of actual conflict of arms. More pacific treaties and conventions are enacted binding together nations in harmony, because of commercial interests than of all other causes combined.

From the above considerations it would seem that commerce is one of the most honored and respected of professions and occupations, and our great educational institutions are recognizing the fact in the establishment of courses of study in commerce.

We are apt to confound the term commercial education as used in business colleges, with the true courses in commerce which educate men along entirely different lines.

The former offers a short-cut to clerkships in offices, while the latter educates a man in international law, commercial history and treaties, and the laws that govern supply and demand.

There is no reason why the advantages offered by such a course should not be as generous as those of literary and technical courses, if we are to judge them by the importance to the nation of the courses pursued.

It is the lack of these practical courses that has prejudiced against literary colleges such men as the president of the great steel trust.

Why will the authorities allow the use of the toy pistol, when every Fourth it claims some 200 victims in Chicago and New York through the medium of lockjaw alone?

China is getting back at us by the sale of the fire cracker—which maimed more in one day than her imperial troops during the entire siege.

Thermometers come high these days, but to some the toy pistol comes higher.

DISCOURAGING FOR TOBACCO MEN; HOT WEATHER FATAL TO THE CROP

Some Second and Third Plantings Have Withered and Died—Rain Needed for Further Transplanting—Tobacco Market Quiet.

Things are looking pretty discouraging for the farmer who did not get his tobacco plants firmly established in their summer home before this spell of hot weather set in. He has plenty of company in this vicinity for there are very few growers who have filled their fields with healthy looking plants.

A prominent tobacco grower, near Edgerton said a few days ago that this was the first time in his experience when it had been necessary for him to reset on account of the heat. This year he had not only transplanted the second time but he would have to transplant a part of his fields for the third time as soon as the weather would permit. Another grower has already planted for the third time only to see the plants scorched to death and he is waiting for rain to come so that he can make the fourth attempt.

The plants in the beds are in fine condition but it is absolutely useless for the farmer to transplant them until there is a change in the weather conditions. Local rains are accomplishing some good but they are too light and too limited in area to be of general interest. The early tobacco which was firmly rooted before this torrid wave came to thrive in this location is doing well.

There seems to be no immediate prospect of any change in the weather, but a few days of cooler temperature and general rains would be warmly welcomed. Unless the change comes very shortly the acreage of Wisconsin tobacco will be greatly decreased. A local authority on the subject of "My Lady Nicotine" says that he can distinctly remember that fifteen years ago this summer tobacco planted on July 18th ripened and was as good in quality and commanded as high a price as the earlier tobacco. He added, however, that he would not advise growers to delay planting until the 18th. He further said that since he had been interested in tobacco he had known of three years where there had not been a frost until the first of October. If there should be such a fall as that this year there would be absolutely no danger for the tobacco crop from frost even though the crop must necessarily be quite late. Growers, however, are not inclined to look on the right side of the question and the majority of them feel pretty blue over the prospects.

The market remains very quiet, the only transaction of any importance reported in local tobacco circles being W. B. Conrad's sale of his entire 1900 packing of 600 cases to George H. Rumrill.

Peter Marsell, an Italian laborer employed by the St. Paul railroad company, was badly cut Wednesday afternoon by a piece of steel rail. He and some other workmen had been engaged in shortening a rail. They had cut it partly off with a rail cutter and dropped it over a brace to break it off. Marsell was in the way when the rail fell and had a severe gash cut in his head. The patrol conveyed him to Dr. Whiting's office where his wound was dressed.

Must Stop Sprinkling

Owing to the fact that patrons of the Water Company are paying no attention to the time set for the use of water on lawns, the Water Company hereby gives notice that the whistle at the pumping station will blow at 8 o'clock p. m. when all the lawn sprinkling must stop, otherwise the company will turn the water off. Unless the rules for sprinkling which confine the time from 5 to 8 p. m., are complied with, the Water Company cannot give the necessary fire protection. All lawns must be turned off in case of fire.

JANESVILLE WATER COMPANY. The above action of the Water Company is necessary because of the great consumption of water during the excessively hot weather. For the past week the pumps have been taxed to the utmost and if a fire broke out under these circumstances it might be impossible for the Water Company to furnish sufficient pressure to fight the fire. We accordingly request all citizens to comply with the above mentioned rules of the Water Company.

The Luck in Endowment Policies.

It is said there has never been and never will be a time when you can secure something for nothing. That idea is exploded. John Nicholson, the missing, has money coming of which he has no knowledge. He insured with the Aetna Life for a 20 year policy, kept up payments for a few years, struck hard luck, and thought the policy had run out. Now you see where he gets the something for nothing. A part of that same policy is matured, ready for John. Let me explain the plan to you.

Quietest Fourth Known in Years

NO GENERAL EFFORT MADE TO CELEBRATE THE DAY.

Excursion and Regular Trains Out of Town Crowded Yesterday with Local People Going Somewhere Else to Celebrate—Beloit, Milton and Other Places Got Visitors.

The Fourth of July in Janesville yesterday was one of the most quiet known in years. On account of no effort being made to celebrate the day by the merchants of the city, there was no particular attraction outside of the Caledonian games to keep people in this city.

Almost every out going train on the two roads yesterday morning was crowded with excursionists. Some went to Beloit to attend the celebration which was held there and others visited the neighboring resorts where they could spend the day in peace and comfort in some shady nook along the shores of a beautiful lake. Most of them returned home last night, a tired but happy crowd well pleased with their day's outing.

The golf grounds were also a source of attraction for many and the large porch was well filled the most of the day who took life easy and enjoyed the view. A basket picnic supper was held last evening about seventy-five being in attendance. About town last evening those who had any ambition left to dance attended the dances given by the Caledonian society and the A. O. H.

The upriver resorts were also well patronized yesterday and the steamboats did a good business. A number of the people owning private launches made up small parties and spent the day in the shady groves along the river.

One remarkable thing about the Fourth just passed was the scarcity of accidents. Aside from the injury received by Charles W. Wisch there was no serious accidents. A number of people received slight burns which were patched up at home without the help of a doctor.

It is the feeling among merchants that next year Janesville must have a celebration.

Mrs. Clarinda B. Fifield and Miss Harriet Fifield returned home Wednesday night from a trip to Boston and other points of interest in the east.

SUDDEN DEATH OF FRANKLIN W. FISK

Notable and Prominent Man in the Congregational Church—Was Once Teacher at Beloit.

Chicago, July 5.—Rev. Dr. Franklin Woodbury Fisk, former president and founder of the Chicago Theological seminary, died at the family residence, 532 West Adams street, early yesterday morning.

The decedent was one of the most widely known and influential members of the Congregational church in this country. Fisk Hall, connected with the seminary which developed under his care and management into one of the largest seats of learning of which the Congregationalists boast, bears his name. Dr. Fisk was eighty-one years old last February.

Dr. Fisk was born in Hopkinton, N. H., Feb. 16, 1820.

When 15 years old the decedent entered Phillips Exeter at Andover, Mass., supporting himself by manual labor while securing an education. Four years at Yale university found him graduating with the class of 1849, the valedictorian of his class. Three years later Dr. Fisk graduated from the Yale divinity school, and for a time was a tutor in Yale college. From January to May, 1853, Dr. Fisk attended lectures in Andover Theological seminary and the next year traveled extensively abroad studying.

An affliction of the eyes prevented Dr. Fisk from accepting calls in the ministry to several important pastorates. While in Europe, however, he was called to the chair of English literature and rhetoric in Beloit college, and served in that capacity for five years, until 1859.

Shortly after this Dr. Fisk came to Chicago and with a few of friends broached the plan of forming a theological institution in this city. The plan proved practicable, and at the beginning Dr. Fisk was elected to the chair of sacred rhetoric. In 1887 he was elected president of the Chicago Theological seminary with which he was connected upward of thirty-one years as professor, or forty-three years altogether.

FORESTERS MEET AT MILWAUKEE

State Convention in Annual Session
Next Monday and Tuesday—
Order in Good Shape.

Milwaukee, July 5.—Max W. Heck, supreme chief ranger of the United Order of Foresters, was up from Racine yesterday in the interests of the order. The supreme court of the fraternity convenes in this city next Monday and Tuesday. About fifty delegates are expected from the states of Wisconsin, Minnesota, Illinois, Missouri, Indiana, and North Dakota. Visitors are expected in addition to the delegates. The convention will open at 10 o'clock on Monday at the Republican house. The morning will be taken up with the report of the credentials committee, the conferring of the supreme court degree, and the reports of officers. The committee on laws will already have prepared recommendations on some of the constitutional changes to be considered by the court and consideration of its proposals will occupy the afternoon.

No radical changes are anticipated in the government of the order. The reserve fund has increased 50 per cent. the past year, all death losses have been promptly paid, the membership has increased 20 per cent. in twelve months and it is considered the height of wisdom to let well enough alone. A proposition likely to be successful however, is that for biennial sessions of the supreme court instead of annual meetings. The reserve fund of the order last June was $63,000, and the membership in May 5,083, as compared with 4,278 a year before that. The election of officers take place the first thing Tuesday morning. It has not been the policy of the order to make changes in its officers because it had the opportunity.

Poisoned by Absorption

POISON OAK, POISON IVY, BARBER'S ITCH, LEAD AND BRASS POISONING, ETC.

Through the pores of the skin many poisons are absorbed into the blood, deranging the circulation and affecting the constitution as quickly and seriously as those generated within the system. Just under the skin are innumerable hair-like blood vessels, and connecting these with the skin are millions of small tubes or glands, through which the poison is conveyed to the blood system. During the spring and summer, while the skin is most active and the pores well open, we are much more liable to be affected by Poison Oak and Ivy and other dangerous plants. Workers in brass, copper, lead and zinc have their health impaired and the blood supply poisoned through the absorption of fine particles of these metals and the acids used in polishing and cleaning them. Inhaling the fumes of lead give painters that pallid, waxy appearance of the skin. Barber's Itch is another disease that reaches the blood through the skin, and is a most obstinate one when it becomes firmly fixed in the system. After the poison has reached the blood and been disseminated throughout the system it is too late to resort to local applications. In many cases the blood is affected simultaneously with the appearance of the rash or eruption on the skin, and all efforts should be directed to the purification and building up of the blood. Ugly eruptions and sores will continue to break out in spite of salves, washes, soaps or other external treatment.

S. S. S. is especially recommended for poisons of this character. So completely does it destroy the effects of the Oak and Ivy that there is no possibility of its reappearance, and it is equally as efficacious in brass or lead poisoning or Barber's Itch; building up and purifying the blood and driving out of the circulation impurities of every kind, and removing every blemish, sore or eruption from the skin. There is no substitute for S. S. S.; it is the only purely vegetable blood purifier known, and the safest and best in all constitutional or blood diseases.

Our Medical Consultation Department.—If you desire any special information or advice about your case, write our physicians, explaining your condition, and they will carefully consider what you have to say, and you will receive a prompt reply. Our physicians have made a study of blood and skin diseases, and you can have the benefit of their experience and skill without any cost to you whatever. Don't hesitate to write fully about yourself, as nothing you say goes beyond our office. We have a very interesting book on Blood and Skin Diseases, which we will be glad to mail free.
